Finance Department.
G.O.Ms.No.71. Fin Dated 21st January 1948.

Read the following:-
Letter from the Registrar, Andhra University, Guntur, No.S.1.3117-47 dated 26-12-1947.

ORDER:

Under Fundamental Rules 110 (c) and 114, His Excellency the Governor of Madras sanctions the loan to the Andhra University, of the services of Sri V. Nagagaja Rao, acting Superintendent, Finance Department, now employed as Assistant Secretary, Board of Revenue (Civil Supplies) for appointment as Deputy Registrar of the University for a period of 3 years from the date of joining. While on foreign service he will draw salary which will be inclusive of cost of living allowance, in the time - scale of Rs.400-40/2-600, starting with an initial pay of Rs.440/- p.m. from the date of joining. He will be eligible for joining time and for pay during joining time under the subsidiary rules under Fundamental Rules 106 and 107 respectively. His pay during joining time will be met by the Andhra University.

2. He will also be eligible to draw from the Andhra University travelling allowance as on transfer, under the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules, for his journeys to join the post in foreign service and on his reversion therefrom. Monthly contributions towards the leave salary (including any compensatory allowance for periods of leave during or on the termination of foreign service) and towards the pension of the officer should be paid by the Andhra University at the following rates to the credit of the Government within 15 days from the date of drawal of pay:

(1) leave salary contribution at 12½% of the pay drawn in foreign service from time to time.

(2) pension contribution @ 9½% of maximum of the time scale of the post substantively held.

The University should also pay the leave salary charges for any special disability leave in respect of any special disability incurred in and through the foreign service, even though such disability manifests itself after the termination of foreign service. No additional pension contribution shall be recovered in respect of any period of special disability leave.

3. The University should provide the usual medical concessions for which the officer is eligible in Government service.

4. If, while in foreign service, Sri Nagaraja Rao is appointed by the Government of Madras as Assistant Secretary in the Finance Department, without prejudice to his continuance in the service of the University, he will be paid by the Andhra University such personal compensatory allowance as will enable him to draw total emoluments equal to what he would have drawn as Assistant Secretary.

5. With reference to items 2,3 and 8 of the terms contained in the Vice-Chancellor's proceedings appended to his letter cited, the Registrar, Andhra University, is informed that as SriV. Nagaraja

Rao is a permanent Government servant, it is not permissible for him to enter into a contract with the University. His services are therefore lent on foreign service, subject to the provisions of Chapter XII of the Fundamental Rules and the subsidiary rules of the Madras Government as indicated above.
